Kentucky Crafted: The Market 2008

The Kentucky Arts Council is very proud to present the nation's first state-sponsored wholesale/retail marketplace, now in its 26th year. The growth over the years has been phenomenal and we owe our success to the many Kentucky craftspeople that have built the foundation for Kentucky Crafted: The Market.

Buyers from shops and galleries across the nation, as well as shoppers, now have the opportunity to purchase the hottest artisan products in the marketplace. This year's Market offers an abundant array of fine contemporary and traditional craft, two-dimensional visual art work, books, musical recordings and specialty food products that reflect the Commonwealth's unique flavor, culture and traditions.

Kentucky Crafted: The Market also has a wealth of special activities and exhibits for 2008.

Be sure to visit Made to Be Played: Traditional Art of Kentucky Luthiers, the American Masterpieces exhibition funded through the National Endowment for the Arts. Dedicated to the memory of Homer Ledford, the luthier exhibition features Kentucky's masters who make and repair stringed instruments.

The Kentucky Arts Council has been working with the Kentucky Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission to prepare for the two-year celebration of his birth in Hodgenville, Kentucky. The 2008 Market features a special product showcase offering handcrafted merchandise designed to commemorate Lincoln's birth, as well as authentic reproductions of craftwork found in the Lincoln era.

On behalf of the Kentucky Arts Council, I hope your visit is exciting and you find many wonderful things to see, hear, taste, experience and purchase. We look forward to seeing you again in 2009!

Sincerely,

Lori Meadows
Executive Director
Kentucky Arts Council

The Kentucky Arts Council, the state arts agency, is funded with state tax dollars and federal funding from the National Endowment for the Arts, which believes that a great nation deserves great art.

The Market is produced by the Kentucky Arts Council. Since 1981, the purpose of the Market has been to develop the state's craft industry, support and empower Kentucky artisans and craftspeople, create an economically viable environment for craft entrepreneurs, preserve the state's craft traditions, stimulate and support product development, and generate public awareness, public support and public/private partnerships.

KENTUCKY DEPARTMENT OF PARKS AND KENTUCKY DEPARTMENT OF TOURISM

BOOTH B

The Kentucky Department of Tourism, the state's tourism marketing agency, will be promoting the Commonwealth, answering questions about tourism and travel, distributing several informational brochures, including the Official Highway Map, Unbridled Spirit logo products, as well as the 2008 Kentucky Visitor's Guide, a complete guide to all of the great activities and attractions that await you in Kentucky.

Stop by and pick up a brochure on golf packages, as well as this year's featured program, the Family Adventure Quest, geared towards families seeking a fun new way to experience our state parks, including winning great prizes in the process. The Kentucky State Park brochure, a compact guide to finding the park to suit your interest, will also be available.

A representative from the Kentucky Department of Parks will be available to answer questions and share information on the 52 unique and inviting resorts, recreational parks and historic sites throughout the state.

THE DESIGNER SHOWCASE

BOOTH C

See the vast array of products created by Market exhibitors displayed in room-like settings designed by students from the University of Kentucky College of Design. The Showcase is located inside South Wing B, near the main entrance.

The Kentucky Arts Council booth will have handouts for attendees and information on Kentucky Arts Council programs and services.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN BICENTENNIAL SHOWCASE

BOOTH D

The Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Showcase features Kentucky-made products in honor of the 200th anniversary of Lincoln's birth. Abraham Lincoln, 16th President of the United States, was born in Hodgenville, Kentucky on February 12, 1809. Kentucky is leading the national bicentennial celebration, which begins on February 12, 2008. The Kentucky Arts Council is participating in and sponsoring many activities, events and celebrations taking place from February 2008 through 2010. The showcase will exhibit products by juried artists and include commemorative, historic and Lincoln-themed items created solely for the Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial celebration.

CHILDREN AND FAMILY TRADITIONS

BOOTH F

mandolins, dulcimers and other stringed instruments. This American Masterpieces exhibit, made possible by funding from the National Endowment for the Arts, is dedicated to the memory of master luthier, craftsman, instrument inventor, and musician Homer Ledford who passed away December 11, 2006. See the exhibit at Kentucky Crafted: The Market next to the Blue Moon Stage, and meet luthiers featured in the exhibit during the Saturday afternoon narrative stage.

READINGS AND BOOK SIGNINGS

The Kentucky Arts Council is proud to present readings and book signings by current Kentucky Poet Laureate, Jane Gentry Vance, and past Poets Laureate Joe Servant (2003-2004), Richard Taylor (1999-2000), and James Baker Hall (2001-2002). Appointed to a two-year term by the Governor, the Poet Laureate promotes the literary arts and leads the state in literary activities, including Kentucky Writers' Day, which is celebrated annually on April 24th to commemorate the birthday of Kentuckian Robert Penn Warren, the nation's first Poet Laureate. This area will also feature book signings by other prominent writers exhibiting at the Market.

FOODWAY STAGE

The Foodway Stage will feature cooking demonstrations by the Kentucky Department of Agriculture's Kentucky Proud food exhibitors.

THE BLUE MOON STAGE

Join some of the commonwealth's most celebrated musical artists on the Blue Moon Stage at Kentucky Crafted: The Market. Whether it's bluegrass, Celtic, jazz, pop, or anything in between, the Blue Moon Stage features talented artists from the Kentucky Arts Council's Performing Arts Directory.

BLUE MOON MARKETPLACE

Experience live music and shop for CDs, videos, books, and more at the Blue Moon Marketplace. Performers will be on hand in the Blue Moon Marketplace sales booth, Booth 451, to meet the public and sign CDs. This booth is located across from the Blue Moon Stage.

Schedule of Performances

Saturday, March 8

Food Demonstration

10:00 am

Kentucky Department of Agriculture's Kentucky Proud food exhibitors cook up tasty samplings of some of the state's finest food products.

Saxton's Cornet Band

11:00 am

Andrew Leonard

12:00 pm

Andrew Leonard's fascination with what can be played as a solo guitarist brings music from all over the world to his audiences. His performances include Spanish guitar pieces, world music, folk-inspired music from the United States, popular arrangements, and compositions from the guitar's classical tradition.

John Edmonds

1:00 pm

John Edmonds' career spans nearly four decades, hundreds of cities, more than thirty states, and fifteen countries on six continents. With twelve record albums to his credit, Edmonds has taken his high-energy, motivational gospel sounds to such diverse venues as West Hollywood's Studio One Back Lot, the USS America aircraft carrier, and the Smithsonian Institute in our nation's capitol.

Made to be Played Narrative Stage

2:00 pm

Join the Kentucky Folklife Program Director, Bob Gates, as he interviews artists from the new exhibit Made to be Played: Traditional Art of Kentucky Luthiers. Stringed instrument specialists will share the art and traditions surrounding their work. See the exhibit and some of their works of art next to the Blue Moon Stage.

Pale, Stout, and Amber

2:30 pm

Drawing on rich music traditions from Ireland and Scotland, Pale, Stout and Amber takes the listener on a journey across the Atlantic Ocean and deep into the roots of Appalachian and bluegrass music. Musical partners Art Mize and Robert Tincher deliver masterful fiddling in conversation with the Irish bouzouki, as well as guitar, mandolin, viola, pennywhistle, Irish hand drum, and compelling vocals.

Arthur Hatfield and Buck Creek

3:00 pm

Like all the members of his band, Glasgow's Arthur Hatfield began learning and honing his skills performing bluegrass music at an early age. Known for their tight vocal harmonies, the members of Buck Creek bring their individual talents and years of experience to this group, which consists of Arthur Hatfield on banjo, Gary Minor on guitar, Ricky Burch on mandolin/fiddle, Johnny Day on bass, and Amanda Everett's vocals.

Cabin Creek

3:30 pm

Formerly Homer Ledford and the Cabin Creek Band, this four-piece, traditional bluegrass band has been together for twenty years. The band has played concerts abroad including three of Ireland's International Bluegrass festivals in which it took top honors. Though much of its music was written and performed by others, the band prides itself on playing several original pieces.

Juggernaut Jug Band

4:00 pm

Louisville is the home of jug band music, a blend of jazz and blues performed on stringed and other standard instruments, with one twist—the sound of a jug. Some thirty years ago, a group of friends became fascinated by jug band music and became the Juggernaut Jug Band, dedicated to preserving the music of the original Louisville jug bands of the early 1900s. They have played almost every type of venue and produced four CDs and a video.

Sunday, March 9

Governor's School for the Arts

11:00 am

Experience live jazz by the Drew Miller Trio from the Governor's School for the Arts (GSA). The GSA provides hands-on arts opportunities for the state's talented high school students who are dancers, actors, instrumental and vocal musicians, creative writers, future architects, and visual artists. GSA's primary components include a three-week summer residential program and regional arts workshops.

Steve Rector

12:00 pm

Born in the coal camp hamlet of Beech Creek, Kentucky, Steve Rector learned his first guitar chords from his dad. His first encounter with thumbpicking was through Mose Rager, Merle Travis' mentor. Steve holds the title of National Thumbpicking Champion, and his music is heard on the KET television show Kentucky Afield.

Roger Cooper

Roger Cooper is one of only a handful of Lewis County, Kentucky fiddlers of his generation to grow up performing the region's distinctive style of local fiddling. Having played for over forty years, Roger has participated in many projects with the Kentucky Arts Council, including an apprenticeship with musician Michael Garvin. He has recorded many of the tunes in his repertoire, and they are available on Rounder Records.

1:00 pm

Greg Schaber

Greg Schaber is an award-winning blues singer and guitarist who performs classic and original blues on a variety of vintage instruments: harp guitar, guitar-banjo, mandolin, and National steel guitar. With almost forty years of playing and studying blues history, Greg moves easily between the sounds of Mississippi, Texas, South Carolina, and Kentucky, lacing it all together with anecdotes and humor.

2:00 pm

Jay Flippin / Gordon Towell Jazz Duo

Jay Flippin, pianist and 2006 Governor's Award in the Arts Winner, and Gordon Towell, saxophonist, perform intimate jazz duets in a relaxed atmosphere. Their performances are comprised from a repertoire of standards, jazz standards, and original songs. Both performers are experienced jazz practitioners as well as teachers who can enlighten audiences about the art form of jazz and the distinct nature of its performance.
